

Mission

In From the Cold is an organization of volunteers seeking to address the basic needs of the homeless, and those at risk of being homeless, in the Quad Cities. To this end we work to enhance community awareness and to provide financial support to member agencies of the Quad City Shelter and Transitional Housing Council.

Duane Dawson of Milan, Bill Gluba of Davenport,
Mike Freemire of Bettendorf, Don Welvaert of Moline,
Dennis Pauley of Rock Island, William Fox of Silvis,
John Thodos of East Moline, and Bob Scannell of LeClaire

Extend a cordial invitation to attend the

19th Annual
Quad Cities Mayors' Hunger Luncheon

*Wednesday, November 9th, 2011 at 12:00 Noon
(Doors open at 11:30)*

Golden Leaf Convention Center
2902 E. Kimberly Road
Davenport, Iowa

Please join us for a meal of fresh bread and hearty soup.
We eat simply on this day, so that others may simply eat.

Through the generous support of our sponsors and corporate community citizens, 100 percent of the funds raised will be distributed to agencies that address the issues of hunger and homelessness in our area.

*There will be speakers who have benefited from the agencies of the Shelter and Transitional Housing Council.
Polo shirts with the "In From the Cold" logo are available for purchase.
Gift baskets and more will be raffled to raise additional funds.*
