

Mission

In From the Cold is an organization of volunteers seeking to address the basic needs of the homeless, and those at risk of being homeless, in the Quad Cities. To this end we work to enhance community awareness and to provide financial support to member agencies of the Quad City Shelter and Transitional Housing Council.

Bob Gallagher of Bettendorf, Scott Raes of Moline,
Frank Klipsch of Davenport, John Thodos of East Moline,
Duane Dawson of Milan, Dennis Pauley of Rock Island,
Tom Conrad of Silvis, Bob Scannell of LeClaire and Marty O'Boyle of Eldridge

Extend a cordial invitation to attend the:

24th Annual
Quad Cities Mayors' Hunger Luncheon

*Wednesday, November 2, 2016 at 12:00PM
(Doors open at 11:30AM)*

Golden Leaf Banquet & Convention Center
2902 E. Kimberly Road
Davenport, Iowa

Please join us for a meal of fresh bread and hearty soup.

We eat simply on this day, so that others may simply eat.

Through the generous support of our sponsors and corporate community citizens, 100 percent of the funds raised will be distributed to agencies that address the issues of hunger and homelessness in our area.

*There will be speakers who have benefited from the agencies of the Shelter and Transitional Housing Council.
There will be opportunities to assist in raising additional funds through raffles, food and cold weather items.*
